

BEVERLY J. INMAN-EBEL

Beverly has a BS in Speech & hearing Science and a M.A. in Speech/Language Pathology by the University of Tennessee. 27 years ago founded TLC (www.talklisten.com), a company that provides keynotes, seminars, executive coaching, meeting facilitation and original training materials to build people skills.

Author of "Talk Is NOT Cheap", "Real World Communication Strategies that Work", "Success Is A Decision of the Mind", and has over 500 articles published.

She is currently serving a 3 year federal appointment to National Women Business Council-Advisors to The President, Congress and the SBA. She is a Vice President of NEWWW – Network of Entrepreneurial Women WorldWide, an Advisory Board Member for Wells Fargo & Center for Women Business Research. Beverly was National President of NAWBO – National Association of Women Business Owners, and won the 2000 Small Business of the Year (Chamber of Commerce).

Beverly has been invited to speak in Turkey, Belarus, Libya, Ireland, Morocco, South Africa, China, Egypt, and other countries. She also speaks for Fortune 500 company functions. Her areas of expertise include communication, leadership, positive attitude, women's issues, and team building.